SightSpace Pro Brings Mobile Augmented and Virtual Reality to 3D Software

Supports All Major 3D Software Formats

BOULDER, CO - January 20, 2016 - Limitless Computing® Inc., the award-winning leading provider of 3D mobile Augmented Reality (AR), today announced SightSpace® Pro, a cloud-based and mobile solution that makes it possible to view 3D digital models and designs in the form of real-life buildings using Augmented Reality technology.

The new SightSpace Pro works seamlessly with the most popular modeling and design file formats including Autodesk .DWG and .DXF, Trimble SketchUp (.SKP), Collada (.DAE), .DGN, .KMZ, .KML, and more. SightSpace turns Apple and Android smartphones and tablets into a powerful machine that blends virtual designs with the real world. When combined with Google Cardboard, SightSpace yields an easy, affordable, and immersive Virtual Reality experience. Share designs securely using a SightSpace Share Code, annotate photos, bookmark favorite views, take photos, and more.

“The new SightSpace Pro allows users to show clients what their digital models and designs will look like in the real world,” commented Dr. Errin T. Weller, president, Limitless Computing Inc.

“It has become much easier to communicate your vision and win more business with this powerful tool.”

Availability

Signups for SightSpace Pro are available now by creating an account on <http://SightSpace.Pro> and downloading the app for a 14-day free trial of all features including unlimited cloud storage for 3D models. The price thereafter is $20/month (billed annually). SightSpace Pro supports Apple and Android phones and tablets and is available in English, French, Spanish, Chinese (Simplified), German, Japanese, and Korean.

Previous SightSpace versions are no longer available as standalone products. Current users of SightSpace 3D or paid users of SightSpace Free-D will receive 3 months free. All preceding SightSpace Pro accounts are still valid.

Enterprise, volume and educational institution users are encouraged to contact Limitless Computing for discount prices for the unlimited cloud storage service and companion mobile app for viewing 3D models.
